

Prize draw giveaway

Closing date: The last prize draw will take place in April 2010. However, we reserve the right to withdraw the prize draw at anytime.

Restrictions: The prize draw is open to anyone who opens a GFC savings account with krbs.com. The giveaway is not available to KRBS employees, their families or anyone professionally connected with the giveaway.

The prize: Prizes are one of the following, a signed GFC shirt, a signed GFC football or the use of the krbs.com corporate box. Prizes are subject to availability. Winners will be drawn at random on the third of the month and winners will be notified in writing as soon as possible after the draw. There is no cash alternative. Kent Reliance will not enter into any negotiations or discussions with any winners or third party in relation to the prize – the decision of Kent Reliance Building Society is final.

Publicity: The winners may be required to participate in publicity accompanying or resulting from this giveaway and krbs.com and GFC reserve the right to publish the winners name, home town and photograph in future promotions.

Data protection: By entering this giveaway the winners accept that Kent Reliance Building Society have access to certain information about them and they agree to allow Kent Reliance Building Society to process and deal with such data.

Law and jurisdiction: These rules are governed by English Law and any dispute with regard to these rules, their content or interpretation shall be governed by the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts. Further copies of the rules are available from www.krbs.com or by calling 01634 835751.

Krbs.com is a registered website of Kent Reliance Building Society